

Project Manager ♦ Process Analyst Quality Management Engineer

Marie is an experienced project manager and business process improvement analyst. Marie has experience helping organizations document and analyze business processes, manage quality improvement initiatives, and manage cross-functional project teams.

Project Highlights

- Conducted project to analyze and improve B2B operations for major health services provider's high profile clients
- Collaborated with numerous department managers to provide insight into process improvements
- Assisted management team to streamline inefficient processes to increase profit and improve product quality
- Improved supplier qualification process and product design process by applying Deming's quality management theories
- Collected data to analyze and review process efficiency
- Created associated process documentation and training materials
- Developed operational processes for new and existing product lines
- Monitored and analyzed product quality to ensure quality control and process consistency
- Performed industry SWOT analysis to identify strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats
- Developed business strategy and plan to expand market influence

About Lightship Partners

Lightship Partners helps senior executives, boards of directors, and investors assess, plan, and manage initiatives to achieve operational excellence and improve profits, predictability, and growth.

Lightship provides assistance as an independent trusted adviser and manager throughout all stages of change initiatives and transactions. Lightship can lead efforts to identify opportunities, design solutions to address these opportunities, and manage the subsequent projects and initiatives.

For more information, please visit www.LightshipPartners.com.

Competencies & Services

- Project Management
- Process Analysis and Design
- Six Sigma Quality Management
- Business Process Documentation and Improvement

Professional Experience

- Engineer, Manufacturing and Distribution Company
- Engineer, Defense Manufacturing Company

Education

- MBA in Quality Management from Hofstra University
- BS in Engineering from Boston University

For more information, please contact:

Jean Hannon

jhannon@lightshippartners.com

516-526-8774